This allows players to have their own individual lessons at a mutually convenient time. Individual lessons are subject to coach and court availability with group lessons taking priority. Contact admin@twltc.co.uk to enquire.

THE COACHES

Adam Swan - Head Coach

Adam has been a tennis coach for over 30 years and has worked in many different countries with all standards of players, including members of the Royal family, the Royal Navy team and has taken players from mini red tennis through to county titles and ITF world tour points.

Adam has played county tennis since a junior and has played number 1 for Kent as well as winning two South of England national doubles titles and has been ranked as high as 3 in the country.

James Bateman

James brings with him over 10 years coaching experience at David Lloyd Eastbourne, and is LTA Level 3.

He is exceptionally talented with younger children (including tots); encouraging them to excel in the game and making him a valued part of the TWLTC coaching programme. James also enjoys teaching adults. His forte is developing and improving players' techniques and working with individuals to help them become the best players that they can.

Lucy Van Doren

Lucy has been coaching for more than 10 years and is a qualified LTA Level 3 coach. She works with all Mini Tennis abilities as well as beginner to intermediate adults. On court, she is enthusiastic, patient and encouraging.

Lucy has good communication skills with both the pupils and parents. Finally, one of Lucy's unique teaching skills is the ability to build up an individual rapport with her players; allowing her to tailor lessons specific to their training needs.

Tom Silvey

Tom has more than 15 years of coaching experience. He has developed beginner mini-tennis and adults, as well as working with performance juniors and adults.

Tom will help groups and individual players reach their goals by delivering a learning in a professional and fun way – inspiring them in the same way that he has been.

Tom currently holds a licenced Level 3 LTA tennis coach qualification.

Darren Bradley

Darren is a very enthusiastic coach who has over 20 years' experience working at various clubs in England.

He is an LTA Level 3 coach who works with players of all abilities from orange level to adults. Darren has played first and second team club tennis for 20 years and has played regional level LTA tournaments since being a junior. He also represented Greenwich University tennis team in the national cup where he gained a degree in sport science.

Charlie Casey

Charlie has over 10 years coaching experience both at London clubs and locally. He is an LTA qualified level 3 coach, has 25 years playing experience and has also recently guided his son through Kent's performance tennis program.

He has a passion for the technical and tactical aspects of tennis, so whether you are a complete beginner or want to tune up your forehand, Charlie can give you the solid foundations from which to flourish.

Roger Hardaway

Roger is an LTA Level 3 coach and has been coaching for more than five years at TWLTC.

He has played tennis for over 40 years, playing both singles and doubles competitively in tournaments and leagues across the county.

Roger coaches all age groups and abilities. His aim is to encourage the enjoyment of tennis, whilst improving both tactical and technical ability, empowering players to be the best they can be when playing tennis socially or competitively.
